

JOHNSON'S CENTRAL AMERICA

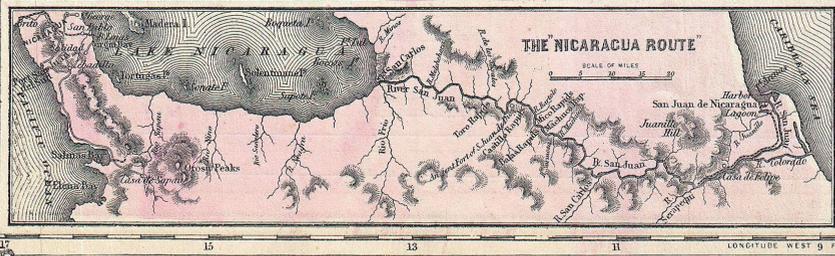

BY
JOHNSON AND WARD.

The boundary of Belize is as defined by the treaty of August 24, 1862 and now in full force.

The limits of Mosquito are laid down according to the unratified treaty proposed by the United States and Great Britain, April 30, 1852.
North boundary of Costa Rica as fixed by Article 15, Chap. 2 of her fundamental Constitution of Jan. 21, 1858.

The line from Puerto Cabellos to the Gulf of Fonseca is that surveyed for the "Honduras Inter-oceanic Railway"
Total Length 150 Miles.

SCALE OF MILES

LONGITUDE WEST FROM WASHINGTON

84

82

80

LONGITUDE WEST FROM GREENWICH

84

82

80

78

14

12

10

8

16

14

12

10

8